B'ha'aloka

(when you go up)

And YHWH spoke to Moshe, saying,

“Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘If any man of you or of your generations shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be on a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the Passover to YHWH.

In the second month on the fourteenth day at even they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs; they shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break a bone thereof: according to all the statute of the Passover they shall keep it.

But the man that is clean, and is not on a journey, and neglects to keep the Passover, that soul shall be cut off from his people; because he offered not the sacrifice of YHWH in its appointed season, that man shall bear his sin.

And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the Passover to YHWH; according to all the statutes of the Passover, and according to the ordinances thereof, so shall he do; you shall have one statute, both for the sojourner, and for him that is born in the land.”
