(Speak)

YHWH commands His people to keep and observe all of His appointed days. The first day that YHWH commands His people to be careful to keep and observe is the seventh day weekly Shabbat. We are to do no work on this day.

Then we are to keep and observe the Passover and the seven Days of Unleavened bread. The first day and the seventh day of Unleavened Bread are to be high days in which we are to gather together to worship Him. These two high days YHWH teaches us that we may cook. Then in the midst of the Days of Unleavened Bread we are to keep and observe the day of First Fruits. This is when we begin to count the omer which leads us to the next high day of Shavu'ot.

Then in the seventh month of the Hebrew year we are to keep and observe three appointed times. The first one is on the first day of the seventh month, Yom Teruah, the Day of Sounding. It is a day for sounding the shofar. Then on the tenth day of the seventh month is Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. Then beginning on the fifteenth day of the month for eight days is Sukkot. The first day and the eighth day are to be high days in which no work is to be done.
