YHWH commanded that some cities be given to the Levites as their possession, since they were not to receive a land inheritance. Three of these cities were to be cities of refuge on the west side of the Yarden River and there were to also be three cities of refuge on the east side of the Yarden River.

Each one of these cities were to have pasture land all around the city, for a distance of one thousand cubits. This land and these cities were to belong to the Levites throughout their generations. They had the right of redemption forever.

The cities of refuge were to be for when a person accidentally killed another person. He could flee to one of these cities and live there until the passing away of the kohen gadol. Then he was free to return to his own land without fear of retribution.

Chazak! Chazak! Venitchazek b'Mashiach Yeshua!

Be strong! Be strong! And may we be strengthened in Messiah Yeshua!
