Noach (rest)

The earth became corrupt and Elohim decided that He would send a flood to wash away the wickedness.
Noach and his wife, his sons and their wives, would build an ark for themselves and the animals.
The clean animals came to Noach, seven pairs of each kind;
and the unclean animals came to him, two pairs of each kind.
Noach, his wife, his sons and their wives, boarded the ark with the animals. The fountains of the deep burst forth and the windows of the heavens were opened. It rained for forty days and forty nights. After it stopped raining Noach sent a raven out to look for dry land but it did not return.
He then sent a dove to look and it returned to him with an olive leaf. After the earth dried YHWH told them to leave the ark. Noach built an altar, took of every clean animal, and every clean bird, and offered them to YHWH as a burnt offering.

And Elohim said, "This is the sign of the covenant that I give between Me and you, and every living being that is with you, to generations forever: I have set My rainbow in the cloud, I will remember My covenant between Me and you and every living being among all flesh, and the water shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh."
