Q'doshim

(holy)

There are many individual commandments regarding how YHWH expects His people to be His Q'doshim—His set-apart people. For example YHWH commands His people not to reap the whole field, but rather they are to leave the corners of the field for the poor.

Also, we as His people are not to deal falsely with one another, but in truth and in righteousness are we to deal with our brothers.

We are not to do things to the blind or the deaf that we would not do if they were not blind or deaf, to cause them harm.

We are to treat all men, both the rich and the poor man alike when it comes to doing justice. We are not to give preference to one just because he is either poor or rich.

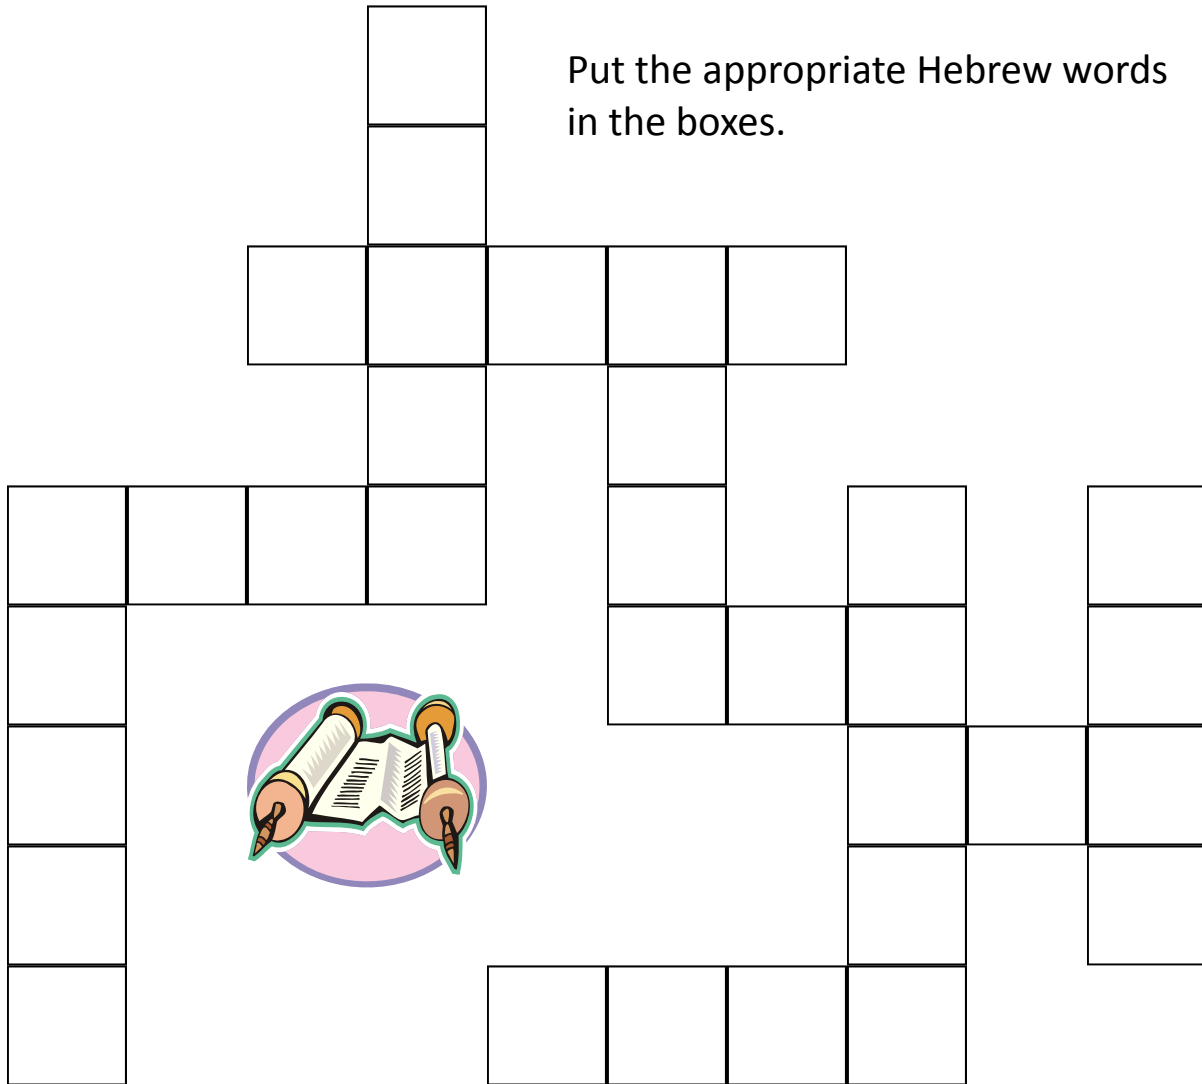

If we see someone doing something wrong we are to go to that person and speak to him personally and not bear a grudge against him for his wrongness. We are not to take our own vengeance upon our brothers in Israel.

We are to drain out the blood of the clean animals that we eat for food and not eat the blood.

We are not to round off the corners of our beard or make tattoos
