(And He Settled)

And Yisrael loved Yoseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age. And he made him a long-sleeved robe. But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and were not able to speak peaceably to him. And Yoseph dreamed a dream, and told it to his brothers. So they hated him even more. And his brothers envied him, but his father guarded the word. And his brothers went to feed their father's flock in Shekem. And Yisra'el said to Yoseph, "Are not your brothers feeding the flock in Shekem? Come, I send you to them. Please go and see if it is well with your brothers and well with the sheep, and bring back word to me." So he sent him out of the Valley of Chevron, and he went to Shekem. And a certain man found him, and see, he was wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, "What do you seek?" And he said, "I am seeking my brothers. Please inform me where they are feeding their sheep." And the man said, "They have left here, for I heard them say, 'Let us go towards Dothan.'" So Yoseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan. And they saw him from a distance, and before he came near them, they plotted against him, to kill him. And they said to each other, "See, this master of dreams is coming! "Now, then, come and let us now kill him and throw him into some pit, and we shall say, 'Some wild beast has devoured him.' Let us then see what comes of his dreams!" But Reuben heard and rescued him from their hands, and said, "Let us not take his life." And Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit which is in the wilderness, and do not lay a hand on him" – in order to rescue him out of their hands, and bring him back to his father. So it came to be, when Yoseph had come to his brothers, that they stripped Yoseph of his robe, the long-sleeved robe which was on him. And they took him and threw him into a pit. And the pit was empty, there was no water in it. And they sat down to eat a meal. And they lifted their eyes and looked and saw a company of Yishmaelites, coming from Gilad with their camels, bearing spices, and balm, and myrrh, going to take them down to Mitsrayim. And Yehudah said to his brothers, "What would we gain if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? Come and let us sell him to the Yishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother, our flesh." And his brothers listened.
