

KIDS FOR TORAH

וַיְרָא

Vayera

(And He Appeared)

YHWH sends two messengers to Sodom and Amarah to see if it is worthy of destruction. Avraham standing there asks YHWH, “Even though I am nothing I wish to speak to my Master. Would you destroy the city if there were fifty righteous in it?” And He said, “I would not destroy the city if there were fifty righteous in it.” Avraham asks, “...45?..... 40?..... 30?..... 20?..... what if there were 10?” And YHWH said, “I will not destroy it on account of the ten.” The two messengers came to Sodom in the evening and Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom; now Lot saw and stood up to meet them and he bowed, face to the ground. And he said, “Behold now, my masters; turn about, please, to your servant’s house; spend the night and wash your feet, then wake up early and go your way!” They went to Lot’s house and the people of the city, young and old, surrounded the house and said to Lot, “Send the messengers out to us so that we may know them.” The messengers tell Lot to gather his belongings and leave the city. Lot tried to tell his son-in-law but Lot was like a jester in the eyes of his son-in-law. Lot, his wife and their two daughters were the only ones to flee the city. The messengers took them outside the city and said to them, “Flee for your life! Do not look behind you nor stop anywhere in all the plain; flee to the mountain lest you be swept away.” So they fled but Lot’s wife looked back and was turned into a pillar of salt.
