

KIDS FOR TORAH

ויגש

Vayigash

(And He Drew Near)

Yehudah begged Yoseph, instead of imprisoning Benyamin, to imprison him. When Yehudah did this, Yoseph's heart could not stand this any longer and he ordered the servants to leave. He cried to his brothers that he was Yoseph; that it was indeed Elohim who sent him to Egypt and that they didn't. Pharaoh heard that the brothers of Yoseph had come and it was pleasing to his ears and to the ears of Pharaoh's servants. So Pharaoh summoned Yoseph and told him to send his brothers to their father and bring him to Egypt, and not to worry about their possessions for Egypt's best was theirs. So Yoseph gave his brothers provisions for the journey and told them not to dally and sent them off. They reached their father and told him that Yoseph was still alive and that he was leader over all Egypt, but he didn't believe them; and then he saw the wagons and his heart was revived. They went down to Egypt with a total of sixty-six persons. When they reached Egypt, Ya'aqov spoke with Pharaoh and blessed him. They then settled in the land of Goshen, the best land in Egypt.
