

KIDS FOR TORAH

בראשית

B'reshit

(In beginning)

Elohim worked for six days and rested the seventh day.

Elohim said, "Let there be light" and there was light.

Elohim revealed light on the first day.

On the second day Elohim created the heavens.

Elohim said, "Let the waters beneath the heavens be gathered into one area, and let the dry land appear."

And it was so.

Elohim created the earth and the seas on the third day.

On the fourth day Elohim created the sun, moon and the stars.

The fifth day Elohim created the creatures of the sea and the birds of the sky.

On the sixth day Elohim created the beasts of the field and man.

And Elohim said, "Let Us make man in Our image, after Our own likeness. They shall rule over the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, and over the animals, the whole earth, and every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth."

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their array. On the seventh day Elohim completed His work which He had done, and He abstained on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.

Elohim blessed the seventh day and sanctified it because on it He abstained from all His work which Elohim created to make.
