

Aharon and his sons were supposed to do the sacrifices. Aharon had to take incense in before the Ark of the Covenant so that the smoke of the incense would cover the mercy seat.

YHWH told Moshe about Yom Kippur. It is on the tenth of the seventh month, according to YHWH's calendar. On that day, you cannot work, eat, or drink. It is a day of cleansing.

One the day of atonement Yisrael was to offer two goats for a sacrifice. Aharon would kill one by the altar and take its blood in to the mercy seat. The other goat called a scapegoat. Aharon would lay his hand on its head, and confess the sins of the children of Yisrael, then he would send it out to land that was uninhabited.

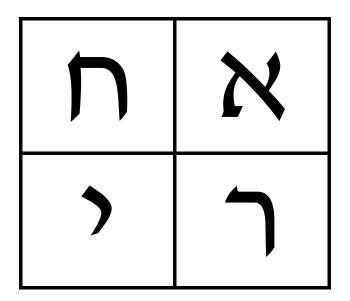

YHWH commands us not to eat or drink blood, because the life is in the blood and anyone who disobeys by eating or drinking blood will be cut off from Yisrael.
