(When you enter in)

Moshe told the people about the blessings and the curses. If we do what YHWH commands us to do we will be blessed. Our food and our animals will be blessed, and we will have lots of rain so that we can grow our food and have water to drink. If we do not do what YHWH tells us to do; however, we will be cursed and the food that we plant will not grow. It will not rain, and we will have many unknown diseases. We will be afraid of everyone around us. We will live uncomfortably until the day we die.
