“You are standing today, all of you, before YHWH, your Elohim: the heads of your tribes, your elders, and your officers — all the men of Yisrael; your small children, your women, and your proselyte who is in the midst of your camp, from the cutter of your wood to the drawer of your water, for you to pass into the covenant of YHWH, your Elohim, and into His prayer that YHWH, your Elohim, seals with you today, in order to establish you today as a people to Him and that He be an Elohim to you, as He spoke to you and as He swore to your forefathers, to Avraham, to Yitzchak, and to Ya’aqov. Not with you alone do I seal this covenant and this prayer, but with whoever is not here with us today.”, Moshe said to the Children of Yisrael. He also warned them about idolatry. He said that if we repent of our sins, YHWH will have mercy on us. Also he told them that the Torah is not far; it is in our mouths and in our hearts.
