(And Went)

Moshe told Israel that he was now one hundred and twenty years old. YHWH had told him that it was time for him to die, for he would not lead Israel across the Yarden River because he had not sanctified YHWH before the people. But he was to commission Yehoshua to be the leader of Israel and that Yehoshua would lead the people across the Yarden River.

Moshe brings Yehoshua to the tent of meeting and YHWH comes down and Yehoshua is commissioned to lead the people.

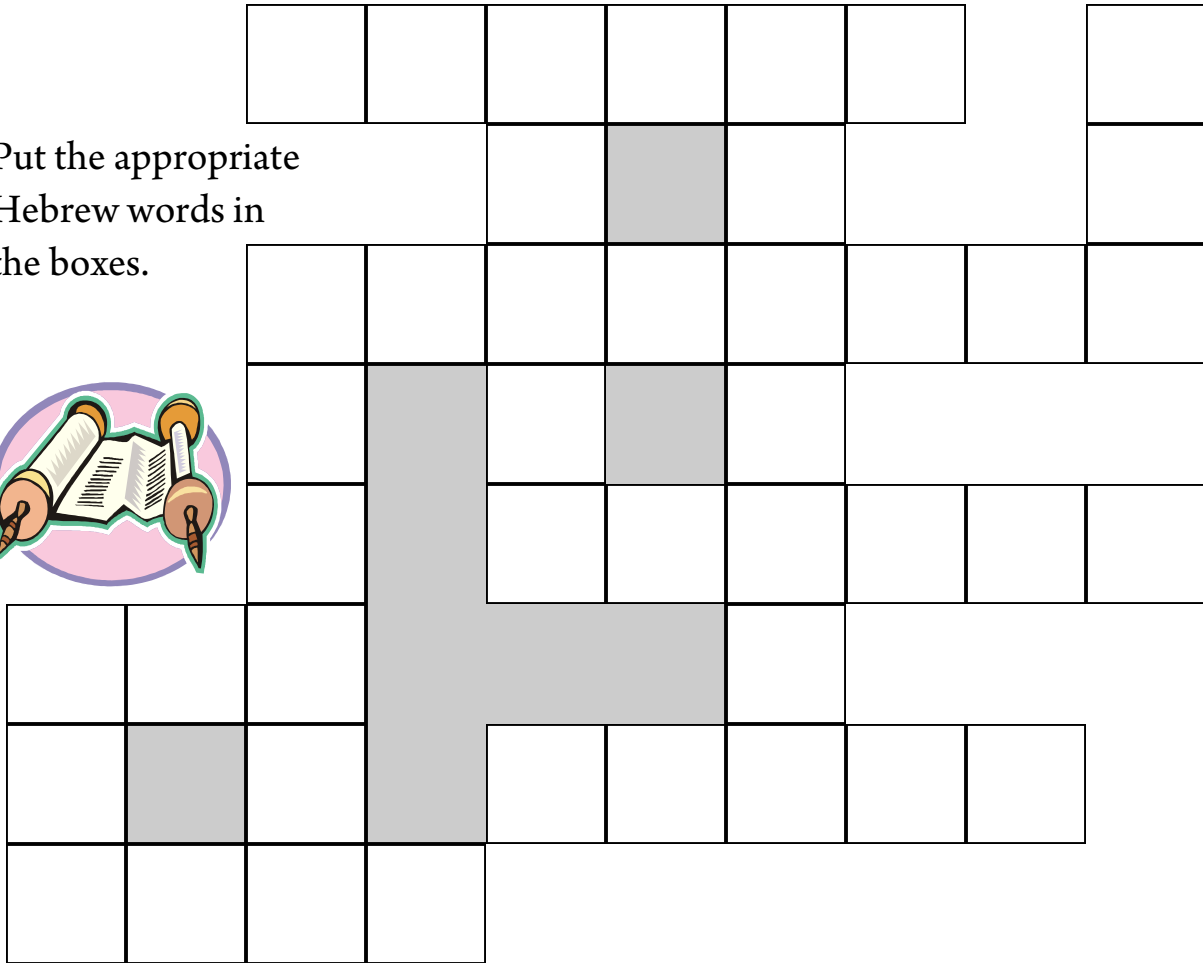

And Moshe called unto Yehoshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and of good courage: for thou shall go with this people into the land which YHWH has sworn unto their fathers to give them; and you shall cause them to inherit it.

And YHWH, He it is that does go before you; He will be with you, He will not fail you, neither forsake you: fear not, neither be dismayed."

So Moshe wrote down the Torah in a book and gave it to the priests so that they would remember. It is also a testimony against Israel when Israel does evil in the sight of YHWH and does not obey His commandments.
