כִּי תָבוֹא

Ki Tavo

(When you shall come in)

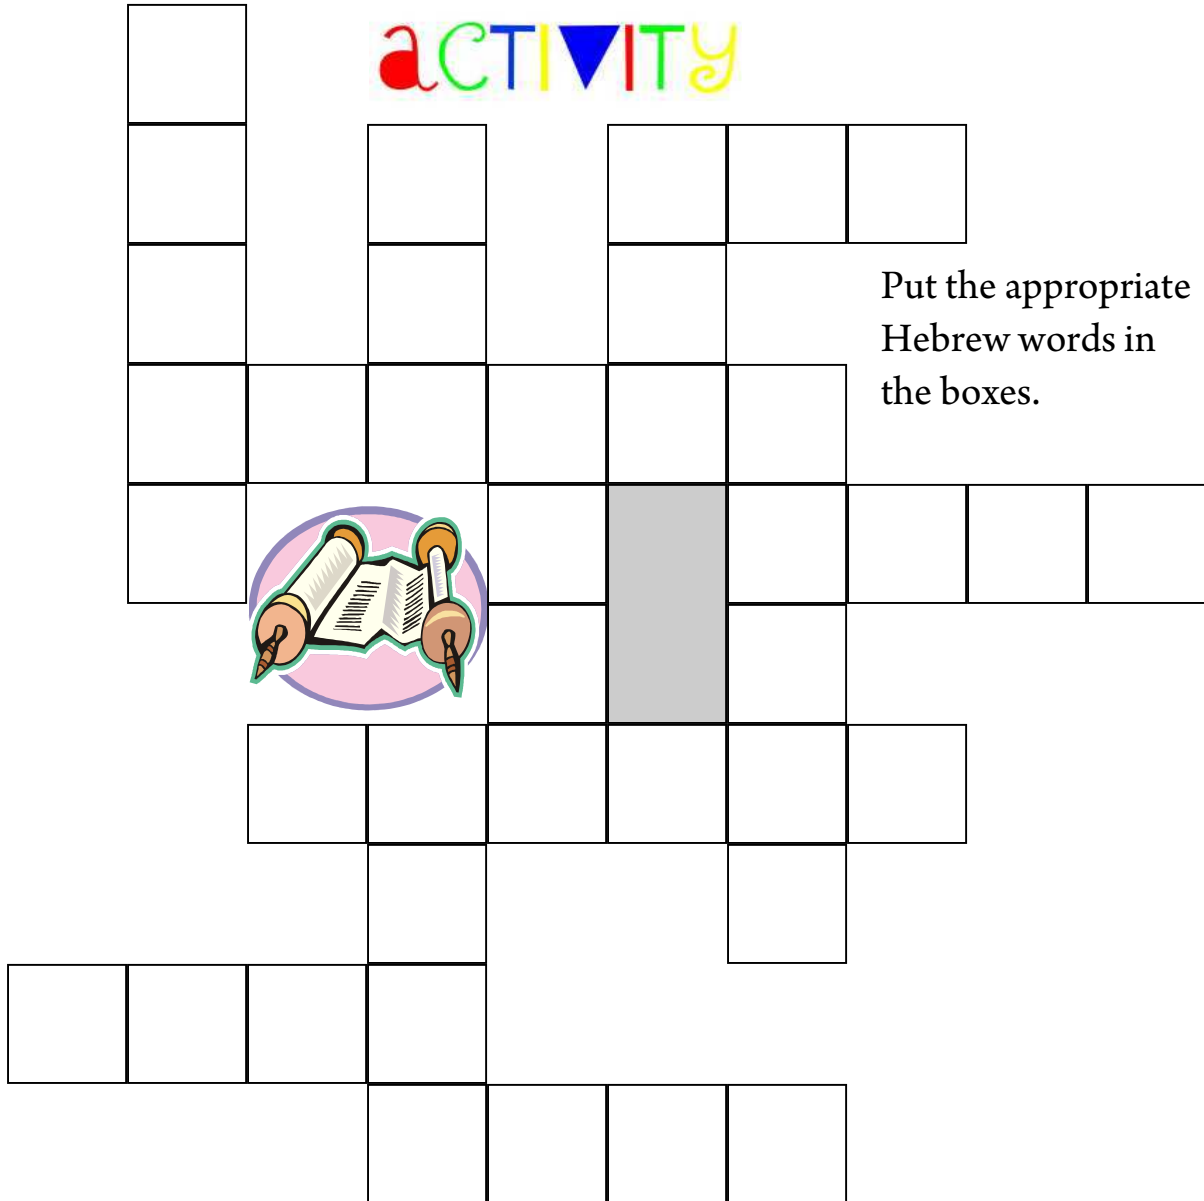

When Israel enters into the land that YHWH promised to Avraham, Yitzchak and Ya'aqov and the land produces its yield, then he is to put the fruit of the land into a basket and bring it to the place where YHWH chooses to establish His name.

There he shall go before the priest in those days and make a declaration. He shall say, "I declare this day to YHWH my Elohim that I have entered the land which YHWH swore to our fathers to give us."

Then the priest shall take the basket and set it before YHWH before the altar. And you shall answer and say before YHWH your Elohim, "My father was a wandering Aramean, and he went down to Egypt and sojourned there, few in number, but there he became a great, mighty and populous nation. And the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, and imposed hard labor on us. Then we cried out to YHWH the Elohim of our fathers and YHWH heard our voice and saw our affliction and our toil and our oppression, and YHWH brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with great terror and with signs and wonders; and He has brought us to this place and given us this land flowing with milk and honey."

We are not to forget the Levite and alien among us.
